Killing is the old way. If you want to move forward in the world you must find a way to love and respect other people that doesnt involve violence. We need everyone to get together and realize that we are just a bunch of monkeys sitting under trees. And...just because you have more toys, that doesn't make you better than the little guy.

If I could do anything in the world it would be to have a small house with a garden and maybe a dog. I might want to start a relationship and have children some day if I could get therapy. I just want to be surrounded by loved ones and not be killed.

Lets just have a bunch of big parties where we all get together, a bunch of representatives from all the nations, and we just have fun for a bit and talk. If something comes of it, cool, if not at least we just had fun. Totally groovy vibes nothing more. Im all about peace and love.

There is so much work to do and it makes me so sad that I won't be around to see any of it done. Please get everyone together and love each other more. Stop hogging all the money and just love.

I've been having a hard time lately so I've been wearing diapers in public. I know, I know. Its ABDL in case anyone is wondering - I've had it all my life due to (I think) due to child abuse. They've (CIA) been brainwashing me unfortunately (but I forgive them), so I have memory loss - I'm having a hard time remembering my childhood.

Lets get everyone together and just sit over a beer and try and talk this out. I've always been a hippy at heart, but I've been super shitty and priviledged my whole life.
